With the start of practice less than two months away, the 2015 Ravenscroft lacrosse schedule has been released.

“We feel like we’ve put together another schedule that will really challenge the team,” Coach Kapatos said. “In addition to our conference games, we will once again play all of the Charlotte teams, and we were able to add a couple of games against teams outside of North Carolina.”

After opening practice on Feb. 16, the Ravens will continue their preparations at the Charlotte Jamboree five days later, and then they will scrimmage Millbrook on Feb. 27. The first weekend games will be huge, with Ravenscroft hosting defending state champion Charlotte Latin on Friday, March 6, and the following day Woodward Academy from Georgia will visit Stefanou Field.
