Named Scholarships

The Hunter Family Scholarship in the Fine and Performing Arts

This scholarship recognizes an outstanding young person entering ninth grade who has demonstrated a marked proficiency in a specific area of the fine and performing arts. The student must also demonstrate a serious attitude and motivation for academic achievement and must possess the qualities of character, integrity, and leadership through a commitment to the fine arts.

Erica Lynn Arcudi '10
Nicole Monica Davis '11
Nicholas Alexander Waring '12
Anastatia Viviana-Rogers Hollis '13

The Mann Family Scholarship Endowment Fund

This scholarship, established in 2000, recognizes an outstanding new African American student entering sixth and ninth grade. The recipient is a student who exhibits high academic potential, qualities of character and leadership, and a strong desire to succeed in a college preparatory program.

Malcolm Isaiah McKinney '11

The Philip C. Miller Family Scholarship

This scholarship was created in 1999 to recognize an outstanding new ninth grade student who demonstrates outstanding academic achievement, exemplary character, and a well-rounded participation in school and community activities.

Austin David Colquitt '11

Ravenscroft Scholars Academic Program

This program, introduced in 2003, recognizes current Ravenscroft 8th grade students reenrolled for Upper School who have demonstrated academic achievement and the potential for continued academic success, who have exemplified character and leadership, and who have fully participated in a broad range of school and extra-curricular activities.

SCHOLAR AWARDS

These awards honor typically one student at each grade level who is considered by the faculty to be the most scholarly student. In addition to grade point average, the awards are for creativity, love of learning, ability to reason and to be analytical and objective. The Scholar Award takes precedence over all other awards. Therefore, students receiving this award will not receive a service or achievement award.

PRESIDENT'S VOLUNTEER SERVICE AWARD

President Barack Obama is continuing the volunteer recognition program initiated in the 2002 State of the Union address by President George W. Bush as he challenged all Americans to make time in their lives to assist their neighbors, communities, the nation, and the world through service. As a result of this challenge, The Presidential Volunteer Service Award program was developed to thank and honor citizens who met President Bush's challenge. The council believes that recognizing and honoring volunteers sets a standard for others and encourages them to answer the President's call to service.

The awards are based on the calendar year, not the academic year. The four levels of this award are as follows for students between the ages of 15-25:
